2. Website and ICLA Congress

After the meeting in Tartu the CLAM opened its website (<http://www.clam-icla.com/>), coordinated by Mirko Lino (University of L'Aquila), and organised its second Workshop at the ICLA Congress in Macau, devoted to Problems of Terminology and Classification with the participation of Hans-Joachim Backe, Massimo Fusillo, Yorimitsu Hashimoto, Helga Mitterbauer, Mauro Pala, Marcio Seligmann-Silva, Federico Zecca.

3. 2020 Annual Meeting in L'Aquila

In June 2020 The CLAM will organise its first Conference on Literature Arts media: The Transcodification in L'Aquila (Italy), as part of the Project of the Department of Excellence on Humanities. One of the Conference sessions will be held in collaboration with another ICLA Reserach Committee, the CHLEL, and will deal with the common project of an Intermedial Comparative History of the Baroque Age, with a special focus on contemporary Neo-Baroque.

4 Publications

Meanwhile the first CLAM publication on the Gesamtkunstwerk, which comes out of a Workshop held at 2016 Vienna ICLA Congress, is going to appear soon by Peter Lang, edited by Massimo Fusillo and Marina Grishakowa, with a Postface by Matthew Wilson Smith (University of Stanford)
